

FUNERAL PROGRAMME

Urn niches

The number of cremation burials has been growing rapidly in recent years, and with it, also the requirement for cremation niches. An urn niche is a container in which the urn of the deceased person is kept.

We have developed them in cooperation with companies providing cremation burials, and they claim the urn niches are the most optimal vessel for urn containment.

They are made of high quality PE, which ensures:

- A long life expectancy
- Durability in different weather conditions
- Watertightness
- Hit force durability
- The optimal rib dimensions, preventing buoyancy in areas exposed to underground water
- Low weight
- The optimal price

Various dimensions of urn niches are available, they enable the storage of up to 4 urns or ash capsules.
